Having nearly completed the predicted issues from our Blue list rest assured that we are in the throes of preparing our new catalogue which will include items of interest for everyone. In the meantime, you Ancient fans, note that we are giving separate wire spears, etc., to go with your figures. They should present no difficulties, a touch of glue into the hand, a gentle squeeze over and you've got more of the realism you have come to expect from us. More in 'Military Modelling' — next issue.

Early 70ies Hinchliffe was making 25mm and 20mm plus a range of guns in 54mm, those guns were made to be used with the artillery teams made by producers such as Rose Miniatures, Traditions, Hinton Hunt

But quickly they will also make full teams with horses, canon and limbers

Au début des années 70, Hinchliffe fabriquait des figurines 25mm et 20mm, ainsi que de l'artillerie en 54mm pour accompagner les figurines 54mm fabriquées par d'autres comme Rose Miniatures, Tradition, Hinton Hunt

Rapidement, ils fabriqueront des sets complets avec chevaux, canon et caissons .

HINCHLIFFE MODELS LTD.

MELTHAM, HUDDERSFIELD, HD7 3NX, ENGLAND

From the hands of Ray Lamb we are proud to present the first of our Ray Lamb Originals, a new departure in that we shall not be held to any specific size or subject in the future. Although widely acclaimed as the ultimate in figure design, we take this opportunity of reminding you that this is the FIRST ever figure designed by Ray for reproduction.

After its description in subsequent pages of this magazine it requires no further introduction from us.
JAPANESE TAISHO, RLO/1 £9.90 inc. V.A.T.

From the same talented and magic hands of Ray Lamb comes yet another breakthrough in the world of model soldiers. Designed to fit in with the present trends, we bring to you a combination of design and casting never before achieved in what we hope will be an expanding range to include mounted figures and the same matching equipment models you associate with us. A few months ago we all thought nothing new could fire the military modelling scene – see the three new figures at your local stockists and note for yourself the charm and character never before seen. Complete with colour instructions etc., in English, French, and German.

- 75/1 Tambour de Fusiliers 1805-1806
- 75/2 Grenadier de Ligne 'tenue de route' 1805/1807
- 75/3 Grenadier de Ligne 'tenue de combat' 1807

Introducing yet another new designer to our team, we present two more 54 mm figures from the capable and talented DAVE SPARROW, another well-known modeller who is soon to be more widely acclaimed.

- C4 BRITISH LIFE-GUARDS TROOPER 1815 Dismounted with horse.....£2.42 inc. V.A.T.
- C5 BRITISH, NORTH BRITISH DRAGOONS 1815 Royal Scots Grey Trumpeter...£2.42 inc. V.A.T.

Introductions to our 25 mm figure designer are hardly necessary as PETER GILDER proudly presents the latest additions to his superb range of war gamer/collector figures. He introduces a new range this month and another, completely new range next month which is beyond our superlatives . . .

The French have a saying for all this – très formidable – we think it means hard, honest endeavour with a lot of enjoyment for you all!

- AWC2 British light dragoon on galloping horse*
- AWC3 British light dragoon Officer*
- AWC4 British light dragoon Trumpeter *

The uniform of the continental line and the British Battalion Company was so much the same in design that figures listed as line infantry can be used equally for American or British and the same can be said for the artillery crews of the British and American armies.

This range sees the introduction of the combination cavalry figure, horse and rider cast integral. This has been asked for by many of our customers and, where the position of the rider is suitable, then this will be done.

WAITING TO GO FORWARD!

It could be PASSCHENDAELE, it could be CAMBRAI. The realism of this World War I 18 pdr. gun team belongs to any modeller who cares to go forward with HINCHLIFFE. An 'oldie' from real life, an 'oldie' from our range and, like the real thing, it's never been bettered.

75/JB1
ITALIAN DEATH
VOLUNTEER,
1917

This figure offers something new to the collector. Drawn from the crack units of Ardite and Bersaglieri, the Death Volunteers were formed into groups of special service units to undertake dangerous and daring tasks. In the specially padded gauntlets, overboots and waders, with body armour and helmet and wielding pole extended wire cutters, he looks at first glance to be from a medieval army. However, the helmet and two litre wine bottle at his feet, his Beretta and grenade bag, place him in true perspective and ensure a pride of place in your collection.

A first attempt, this figure makes a secure place for its designer, Major Julian Bennassi, A.M.R., in the ranks of today's figure designers.

Full colouring instructions included — £2.50

A superb new range of 30mm figures designed by Dave Sparrow, a designer who is fast acquiring international merit.

Available at the present in handcrafted pewter, these figures are presented only in boxed sets with fully veneered mahogany bases, base material and effects and are complete with information booklets. Where applicable, the artillery equipment is from the already well-known, unbeatable Hinchliffe 30mm range.

Fully acceptable to the established collector, these diorama packs are also ideal for that "don't know what to buy him" present.

OLD GUARD

The latest Old Guard figures are now available. For the Empire Builder, there are soldiers from Imperial Germany and Great Britain; for the Ancients enthusiast, a dismounted Roman Auxiliary cavalryman and for the modern collector, a Wehrmacht ski-trooper in steel helmet. If you hanker for civilian figures, then look closely at our two new Personality models. With their distinctive high quality and scrupulous detail in design and casting, Old Guard figures are for the collector who prefers something better.

FABULOUS NEW 90mm RANGE

We're wrong again!

Sorry, we thought we had already brought you the ultimate in design but just look at this first attempt; we illustrate it on the left.

Note the designer's name, Dave Jarvis, he's going straight to the top of the league. A successful silversmith working from his own premises in Hatton Garden, Dave is going to enrich this hobby for all time. If you like it write and tell us; we will be delighted, so will Dave and perhaps you'll give us a hint of what you would like to see produced for your own particular collection — this man is not only talented, he's versatile.

Watch for our illustrated advert next month, don't rely on reviewers, they're way behind this Company.

Available now in 90mm scale

90/DJ2	Tirailleur Grenadier, Young Guard, 1809	£3.50
90/DJ3	Officer, 9th Lancers, circa 1820	£4.50

Ready next month—90/DJ1 Highlander and then a fabulous R.H.A. Troop Captain from the Peninsular, just a little tribute to Norman Ramsey.

4M INTRODUCING FOREMOST 4M

A complete new range of miniatures!! We are privileged to produce this fabulous new line of wargame figures and accessories on a contractual "limited run" basis only.

These must be the ultimate and are strictly for the connoisseur at lower than wargame prices.

Available from our Company direct mail only — see the separate illustrated advertisement next month. 25mm for September and October with a good sprinkling of 15mm for the festive season. Separate lists available — send S.A.E. and ask for FOREMOST.

You all know the designer, he sprung it on us, so we're springing it on you!

First offerings include The Imperial Guard at Waterloo; can't be bad!

If it's all too much for you, just don't read the rest of these pages. Just refuse to be involved with the finest bunch of enthusiasts in the world — not everyone is ready for it!

WHAT'S IN THE PIPELINE?

Well, we've mentioned Ramsey and Foremost 25's and 15's and we've got the 54mm Ambulance set out of our system! What about the German W.W.II 150mm Field Gun? At the moment it's filling our benches, it's big in 54mm scale—so it just adds up to a lot of super detail.

Oh! Yes! And a fabulous portrait figure of Beau Nash from yet another new designer — it's all too much for us, what with all this hot weather and the issue of the world's first 25mm Russian Artillery System!

It could all be eclipsed by the latest offering to come out next month — the best from Benassi yet — a mounted Chasseur a Cheval of the Guard — a speciality primarily for the boss but we're making it available so you can all share in it!

Dave Jarvis 90mm (painting Mirof 70ies)

"Said a famous reviewer to us one day,
How can I my true thoughts of you say?
Yours are the best, the whole world knows
But what of me would say your foes!"

So what! If we can't hit the reviews we will just have to do our own in the finest Catalogue/ Handbook ever brought to the hobby.

We were much too busy producing for you this superb 54mm French Napoleonic Larrey Light Ambulance set. It's complete with a two horse team and mounted driver of train and one on foot. We had to do the attendants — because it's so lifelike that those horses would have taken off!!

Out for the end of September, Surgeons, etc., to follow.

Russian Napoleonic Dragoon. N.C.O
1812 75/JB 12 £2.73

Russian Bashkir with horse. 1812-14 75/JBC 7 £9.50

An unusual subject, the Bashkirs were irregular cavalry, often armed only with bows and arrows, some even wearing mail coats and ancient helmets. This figure portrays one of Napoleon's antagonists very much as he could have been in the 1814 occupation of Paris after campaigning across Europe collecting a various assortment of weapons and accoutrements on the way, plus a French horse to boot!

"What the Experts Say About Us –

- every figure in the range, cavalryman or infantryman is of a uniformly high quality.
- highly distinctive and extremely likely to make all Napoleonic wargamers hate the sight of their existing army.
- it has long been my feeling that some manufacturers tend to scale down the size of their horses and this applies to all scales not just wargames figures, but the Hinchliffe heavy cavalry mounts are 100% correct.
- whoever designed them deserves a medal because they breathe life from every inch of their highly decorative and most detailed figures.
- perhaps the best action miniatures I have seen for some time, the photograph does scant justice to the finished articles."

13th CENTURY MOUNTED KNIGHT 80mm SCALE

NEW

Another 80mm masterpiece from the skilled hands of sculptor Paul Knight.

This figure is specially sculptured to give scope to the painting of an infinite variety of heraldic designs some of which are described in the colour guide and instruction leaflet.

A variety of helmets, shields, hands, etc. are included in the kit to alter for great variations of assembly, a few are shown in the inset illustrations.

Next on the list from this fabulous designer a full action 80mm mounted 17th Lancer lifted straight from the Light Brigade Charge!

Feb 79

Only one new release this month but a few reminders of some of our 'Golden Oldies'.

We're busy at the moment building up to the launch of two new business ventures which should excite some of the more discerning amongst you and we've also other plans for the New Year.

Our own New Fantasy pieces, star ships, star ships, men-o-war and the usual steady and some would say remorseless additions to our model soldier ranges.

— We love model soldiers — they may be more demanding in design, they may even get less than profitable, but its in the blood and some may even say it shows — they did in the U.S.A. last October when they awarded us the top award for the best historical range at Origins 78 very gratifying for us and you.

WARGAMERS

Its 1979 for our design of 15mm figures, they will be different to all that have marched before be sure of that but in keeping with our usual style they'll be better than anything you've ever seen — impossible! It's been said before but we just seem to manage it somehow — not a lot for starters but a little bit of the best!!

CALDER CRAFT®

THE NEW NAME FOR MILITARY MODELLING

Son of Hinchliffe Models, Calder Craft presents a compact range of military modelling and wargaming figures and equipment from 1/72 scale to 1/32 scale, all authentically reproduced. The quality and craftsmanship is amongst the highest available in the world today. These magnificent diorama kits, shown complete with base, are perfect in every detail like the featured German WWII gun team horses and crew, the first of its kind ever to be offered to collectors, or, the French Napoleonic Larrey Light Ambulance, realistically portrayed with horses and attendants... these are just a few models from the exciting new Calder Craft collection which ranges from 1/72 scale WWII figures and equipment, designed to complement plastic model kits, through to the amazing Japanese Warrior Commander, acclaimed as the finest Samurai Warrior ever to be produced.

The Hinchliffe X Figure Range The Highland Scots are here!

We have long held stocks of figures that are the work of different designers than that of our main designer Peter Gilder.

In line with our policy of constant change and improvement we have decided to release some of these at regular intervals and these and associated equipment pieces will be known as our eX range.

Ex is the prefix of course for excellent, exceptional, extraordinary, excelsior and many other adjectives and all provide a fitting description to this new and exciting range of the 80's.

Although the work of many different designers will be a feature of this new and exciting range (another suitable adjective!) list effort has been made to keep the identity of the various designs that will be introduced. All will be compatible to each other and to the existing Hinchliffe Ranges which will still be available and be added to as before; we simply open up yet another dimension to the discerning wargamer.

Continuing further our idea of years ago to give separate weapons, standards etc. to our figures this will be enlarged upon in the new series to an even further degree and will include choice of accessories where relevant.

All figures, horses and equipment pieces will simply bear the prefix X followed by a number and be protected as always by the registered Hinchliffe Copy-right.

Scots of the English Civil War Period 20p per figure. 25p per horse. AVAILABLE NOW.

- X1 Highland piper, marching playing pipes with targe shield and claymore (S)
- X2 Highland archer shooting arrow with targe shield and claymore (S)
- X3 Highlander standing firing musket with claymore (S)

- X10 Mounted highlander holding lance with claymore and shield (S) (X12)
- X11 Mounted chieftain with claymore and shield (S) (X12)
- X12 Highland horse

All prices are stated until superseded by a new list and will be the same per item as those similar pieces listed under the Hinchliffe range.

- X13 Lowlander holding pike at present or ramming gun, with claymore (S)
- X14 Lowland musketeer (S) Denotes separate weapon(s) standards(s), drum etc.
- (X) Followed by a number(s) in bracket denotes a suitable horse(s) for that particular rider.
- (OPC) Denotes that the model is a one piece casting, e.g. horse and rider, pair of figures, cannon etc.

NORTHERN MILITAIRE '81

We have a new venue for Northern Militaire '81. This year we have much more space and would therefore like to invite the following people to make this new Oldham venue one to remember.

- Clubs and societies if you offered you space could you use it to everyone's advantage?
 - Trade stands more space means more trade can attend - why not put your name on the list.
 - Painting competition rules now available.
- Write now and see what we can offer!

GLOOM & DESPONDANCY!

- not in this company, stuff is just fighting to get out of our door. In the works ready for release - A Renaissance 54mm Falconet Cannon 54mm Landsknechts Vignette and Singles Napoleonic for the Hinchliffe 25mm Range - many figures going into winter gear - very paintable very playable.

"NELSON & HARDY" in 100mm

Nov 81

Sculptured by Mike Tapavica

If you saw September's issue of Military Modelling then you know of Mike Tapavica.

An informed impressive sculptor and painter is how he's described. The proof is in our latest issue from Mike — it's 100mm and it's my favourite Admiral and his loyal Captain.

... It's October 21st, 1805 and the Vignette says it all.

MTO/1&2 Shortly available in separate pieces.

MTO/1 Nelson 1805

MTO/2 Captain Hardy 1805

Also by Mike Tapavica "Old Guard at Bay" Now at £9.50. From the same sculptor a new 100mm mounted piece — watch our adverts.

Happy Christmas!

Can we take this opportunity to wish all our customers and readers a Happy Christmas and a Happy and prosperous New Year.

Despite our present economical climate you will see from the following that we're doing our best at the Fun Factory to help make it so, chisels are sharpened and pots are bubbling and we're all poised to make 1982 a year to be remembered if only for our outpourings of figures.

ROBIN HOOD

Heard of our Robin Hood range of goodies? Whether yes or no they're listed below and are now available as singles or vast collections at the prices listed. Did you know there is quite a Medieval range lurking among them, you didn't? Just read the list.

DARK AGES

NEW 25mm

Does the name Peter Gilder ring a bell — good! Then you must know that he is responsible as ever for the design of our 25mm figures including most of the Fantasy and all of the Foremost — we lost him for a month or two while he Wargame Holidayed (twice the success of last year!) we're back to normal, so read the list of the first issue of our Dark Ages Range, available now and more to come. I am determined to have my castle-storming parties before long! First releases will be on sale on our Stand at the Model Engineer Exhibition. A full list of our first releases in next months ad.

Now for a pot pourri of what should have been listed before, but somehow lost their way North of St. Albans — take a grip of yourselves and read on!

X-RANGE: American War of Independence

You must know of our X-range of figures set up to accommodate designers other than Peter — I knew you would have — well we're adding a new designer to the list, Steve Hizzlewood. We offer no excuse for another American War of Independence range other than they are truly Continental and above all are the finest figures available today but they are actually miniature men with realistic poses and true proportions, could be too much for some people — we've had them around for a year or two, but we really mean a Happy New Year for the more discerning. A full listing below, those asterisked are available now, other releases over the next month or two.

BRITISH, CONTINENTAL, HESSIAN OR FRENCH *NOW AVAILABLE — 20p EACH

- AVAILABLE EQUIPMENT:
- Naval Cannon 25/AA, Gun Limber 25/AP, 8-pdr. Gun 25/B, 12-pdr. gun 25/C and Galloper Gun 25/BA.

Note: some will have separate weapons and X33 and X34 should be used for British Continental, French or Hessian line troops, the difference is so small the paint job does it, same applies to the artillery crew officers, just use X. Will explain about the artillery when we've some more room!

TOP SECRET — he's doing us a Samurai range, Renaissance period, for release early '82.

Doesn't leave us much room now, but we have six new 54mm Gunner WWII crew men for our not yet surpassed field piece 150mm field howitzer 8.8mm PAK. Isn't it odd how they're all at it in the hobby now, but only the giant Tamiya have come up alongside us with the real technical stuff — gun kits just like we do. Odd when there are so many ravers in our hobby today, I digress, here are the gunners:

54mm Figures — £3.20

- F84 German WWII Gunner Officer — Peaked Cap
- F85 German WWII Gunner Crouching with Shell
- F86 German WWII Gunner Standing arm raised looking at watch
- F87 German WWII Gunner leaning to pull lanyard
- F88 German WWII Gunner kneeling to gun

54mm Cavalry

- 54/C11 Landsknecht Standard Bearer — £5.20

Just for closures how about our 54mm mounted Landsknecht Standard Bearer. C11 Price £5.20, designed by Paul Knight who gave you the Gothic Knight and the whopping mounted Samurai.

That reminds me, we do want to make it a Happy Christmas and New Year, so we're lowering the price of the MOUNTED SAMURAI PKO/3 TO £55 for a period up to 1st February.

Thanks to all who made Northern Militaire a success, we were bound to make a few mistakes at our new venue — what few there were the two Johns' will sort out in 1982 — we're making it a Happier New Year all the time!
